What type of animal is my locust?

Colour in the correct arrows to follow the path to your locust.
Cut out the picture at the top and stick it with paper glue in one of the squares at the bottom of the key to complete your path. You can draw pictures in the other squares to finish your key.

It has a backbone
It is a VERTEBRATE

It is an INVERTEBRATE
It has jointed legs
It has six legs
It is an insect (e.g. beetles, flies)

It has eight legs
It is an arachnid (e.g. spiders, ticks)

It has a hard shell
It is a crustacean (e.g. woodlice, crabs)

It has more than eight legs
It is a myriapod (e.g. centipedes, millipedes)

It does not have a backbone
It is an INVERTEBRATE

It has hair or fur
It is a mammal

It has feathers
It is a bird

It lives in water and on land
It is an amphibian

It has scales and lives on land
It is a reptile

It has scales and lives in water
It is a fish

It is not an ARTHROPOD
It is either a worm, a mollusc, a sea urchin, or another animal.